INSTALLATION

ⓘ Before connecting the USB cable C to the laptop, make sure that the DisplayLink driver is installed on the laptop.

⇒ Download driver at displaylink.com/downloads

⇒ Connect the USB cable.

NOTE! The configuration can in some cases take more than 60 seconds.

The consequential re-connections will be faster (~10 seconds).

ⓘ You can also opt to connect the screen directly to your computer, usually via HDMI, and then you don't need the driver from DisplayLink.
